

About Us

Our Directors

The NHICC has 3 corporate directors and group of directors that represent various regions within Canada. The corporate directors comprise: Claude Lawrenson-NHI, Bill Mullen-NHI & George Webb-NHI.

The regional directors are: Gary Wood-NHI (Western Region), Brian Crewe – NHI (Quebec- Francophone), Reid Sheppard-NHI (Atlantic Region), Wayne Fulton-NHI (Ontario & Professional Practices).

Advisory Group Meeting

Additionally, we acknowledge the following for their past service as directors: Roger Chamberland (retired- Manitoba), Wayne Christopher (Ontario & Professional Practices), & Rose Marie Moore (deceased- British Columbia).

A few other key people that are part of our NHICC members include representatives of the “public” and “advisors” include: Cam Allan (Advisor), Brian Callaghan (Advisor), James Robar (retired-CMHC), William Crawford (retired – CMHC) & Bud Jobin (deceased – First Nations Building Officer). The role of the advisors and public members represents someone who has the background in maintaining and upholding public advocacy.

Public members are considered by the (NCCA-ICE) National Commission of Certifying Agencies to be a person that represents the direct and indirect users of certificate skills and services. The NCCA-ICE uses a peer review process to:

- Establish accreditation standards,
- Evaluate compliance with the standards,
- Recognize programs which demonstrate compliance, and
- Serve as a resource on quality certification

As such, the NHICC has maintained membership in ICE since 2010, and continues to maintain reasonable compliance with the NCCA Standard.
